STUDEBAKER

THE SERIES 24 STUDEBAKER BIG-SIX SEDAN $2750

LARGE numbers of motorists who have always insisted on the best in everything they buy, are discarding their heavy, bulky, high-priced cars and are replacing them with the Studebaker Big-Six Sedan.

And they tell us that, in every way, it represents precisely their conception of what a really fine motor car should be.

They are enthusiastic over their all-round satisfaction with the Big-Six because of its dependability, surplus power, extreme comfort and the completeness and elegance of the appointments.

The Series 24 Sedan—the finest car that has ever borne the name Studebaker—presents a value unapproached by other cars at anywhere near the price, in this country or abroad. Its nominal cost of operation is a source of continual satisfaction.

Everything for which one can wish in motoring convenience, comfort and utility has been provided—even to the two extra disc wheels complete with tires, tubes and tire covers; handsome nickel-plated bumpers, front and rear; roomy trunk and many other features.

The moderate price of the Sedan is due to large volume, the manufacture of all vital parts in Studebaker plants and Studebaker's vast physical and financial resources.

After 71 years of service, the name Studebaker enjoys confidence and respect more than ever.

Partial List of Equipment of Big-Six Sedan—Two extra disc wheels complete with cord tires, tubes and tire covers. Nickel-plated bumpers, front and rear. Commodious trunk. Automatic windshield cleaner, rear-view mirror and glare-proof, glass visor. Courtesy light, coach lamps, dome and rear corner reading lights and combination stop-and-tail light. Motometer with lock and ornamental radiator cap. Automatic gasoline signal. Aluminum-bound running boards with corrugated rubber mats and step pads. Aluminum kick plates. Heater, vanity case, smoking set and flower vase. Snubbers. Eight-day clock. Upholstery of rich mohair velvet plush.

ISSUED BY

The Ohio State University Athletic Association

President's Greeting

In the absence of President Thompson and on behalf of the whole University, I wish to extend to our alumni and former students, and to our friends from the University of Illinois a most hearty welcome. Our relations with the University of Illinois have been on the highest plane. Our Illinois friends have been true sportsmen.

When Illinois and Ohio State meet there is a real contest, and whichever wins every one knows that the game has been a clean, hard-fought one. We all hope that this friendly and genuine rivalry may long continue.

Ohio State students may well be proud of the achievements of our athletes, and equally proud of the manly character and sportsmanship of all connected with our Athletic Department.

JOHN J. ADAMS,
Acting President.

DEDICATION

Sweet are the childhood memories of the sawdust ring which linger in the thought of grown-ups. Glorious is the atmosphere of spangled stars, of lithe acrobats, of snorting animals, of feats of daredeviltry. Happy are the hours spent beneath the mammoth canvas housing the "world's greatest performers."

The Fog Raiser, in a narrow sense, is quite akin to the circus. At least, the spirit of the arena reigns supreme.

And so, the Fog Raiser Executive Committee, on the eve of its third production, wishes to pause for a moment to pay homage to that dean of showmen, that student of humanity, that pioneer in America's entertainment world, Phineas Taylor Barnum.

How To Enjoy Football

By Director L. W. St. John and Dr. J. W. Wilce

Written for the average "fan," to help him get more out of the game.

Seventy-two pages; frontispiece; art cover by Prof. T. E. French, "Daddy of the Stadium Idea;" cartoon by Billy Ireland; extensive definitions, and a new arrangement of penalties.

Get it at the game or any bookstore.

Price 50 cents

IN the ten years Ohio State has been a member of the Western Conference, during all of which time L. W. St. John has been Director of Athletics and Dr. J. W. Wilce Director of Football, its teams have thrice won the Western Conference Championship and have risen from obscurity to the front rank of college teams.

Of 73 games played during that period, Ohio State has won 54, while three were tied, giving the Buckeyes a grand average of .771 for the decade.

Of 41 games with Western Conference opponents since 1912, Ohio State teams have been victorious in 26 with one tie, giving the Ohioans a Big Ten average of .650.

On 36 occasions during the 10 years Ohio State has shut out its opponents, 13 Western Conference foes being among the victims.

Within three years after its admission to the Conference, Ohio State won its first championship in football. Its 1917 eleven repeated this feat. In 1920 the Ohioans landed their third title and a year later were toppled out of first place by Illinois in the last game of the season.

Led by "Chic" Harley, many stars have been developed on Ohio State's teams in the last decade under Dr. Wilce's coaching. Numerous Ohio State players of this period have been named on all-American and all-conference teams.

L. W. ST. JOHN

DR. J. W. WILCE

Ohio State football hopes suffered a severe setback in the Wesleyan game when Ollie Klee, sterling backfield man, who was all set for a great season, was injured.

If he gets back in today or next week, the team should be materially strengthened.

Changes in Football Rules for 1923

Most of the changes in the football rules this year deal with minor details of phrasing. An attempt has been made to clearly explain a number of points upon which coaches and officials have been in dispute. Since the revised wording follows closely the interpretation that has been given by most good officials it is unnecessary to give space to them here but to confine this article to the changes of real importance.

ON-SIDE KICK

The on-side kick passes out of existence from scrimmage formations, although a man who is behind the kicker when the ball is kicked may still recover the ball, provided it does not cross the line of scrimmage. On a free kick after a fair catch or on the kick-off, any man may still recover the ball.

OFFSIDE MAN TOUCHING KICKED BALL

Last year a man who was ahead of the ball when it was kicked by a member of his own team and consequently was offside, was penalized five yards for touching a kicked ball before it touched an opponent, and also suffered the loss of the ball. This year when an offside man touches a kicked ball, it goes to the opponents, without any additional penalty, at the spot where it was touched. This penalty may be declined by the offended team.

CLIPPING

The penalty for clipping is enforced from the spot of the foul or the spot of the preceding down, at the option of the offended side. Last year it was enforced from the spot where the ball was put in play.

DELAYING START OF GAME

If a team deliberately delays the start of the game a penalty of twenty-five yards is inflicted on the offending team and the ball is put in play from the scrimmage. The offended team may elect whether it desires to put the ball in play on its opponent's 35-yard line or to have its opponents put it in play on the latter's 15-yard line.

ILLEGAL POSITION OF PLAYERS

This year all players on the offense except the man in the quarterback position must either be on the line of scrimmage or at least one yard back of the line of scrimmage. Violation of this rule incurs a penalty of five yards. Last year men could be placed in any manner as long as seven players were legally on the scrimmage line, although to legally receive a pass a man must play either on the line of scrimmage or at least one yard back of it.

ILLEGAL FORWARD PASS PENALTY DECLINABLE

Illegal forward pass penalties may be declined by the offended team, although penalties for an incompleting pass may not be declined. Last year neither could be declined.

Yea, Illinois! Yea, O-hio!!

Traditional athletic rivalries have ripened everywhere with the years. Few other series in the country, certainly none in the Middle West, has equalled that on the gridiron between Illinois and Ohio State in recent years. Today their meeting enjoys the attention of football devotees the length and breadth of the land.

To reminisce for a moment, the football rivalry between the two great sister institutions dates back more than a score of years. It was in 1902 that their teams first met. It ended in a scoreless tie, the record book shows. Two years later the Illini rode rough-shod over Ohio State, winning 46 to 0.

A decade passed before they played again. It was in 1914, the second year Ohio State was a member of the Big Ten when the Buckeyes, still in the "knee pants" stage, journeyed to Urbana-Champaign and bowed before a great Illinois team, 37 to 0. Then came the awakening.

In 1915 the Suckers invaded Ohio State with another great eleven, although it was somewhat crippled. Even discounting the injuries, not even the most sanguine Ohio State supporter looked for more than a good showing against the Illini. To the astonishment of the critics the plucky Ohioans won a moral victory in the 3 to 3 tie, outplaying Illinois throughout most of the game and keeping their goal line uncrossed.

Since that time the games between the two schools have been noted for hair-raising finishes and for the brilliant football the two elevens have always displayed against each other. Ohio State annexed its first victory of the series in 1916 when "Chic" Harley, then a sophomore, flashed across the horizon for the first time. That score was 7 to 6, the superb Harley making all of Ohio's seven.

Then came another championship year for Ohio State and the Buckeyes in 1917 shut out Illinois 13 to 0. That occasion, it might be added, was the last time that Ohio State has won from Illinois on the Buckeye gridiron. In the war year of 1918, Illinois reversed the tables and the score, defeating Ohio State 13 to 0 at Urbana. To square accounts, as it were, that was the last time Illinois has won from Ohio State on Illinois' field.

Those famous last eight seconds robbed Ohio State of another championship in 1919 when the Illini came from behind in a stirring finish and nosed out Ohio State 9 to 7.

Invading Illinois the next fall, the Buckeyes went Zuppke's men one better and scored a touchdown after the whistle blew for a 7 to 0 victory that brought another championship to Ohio. In 1920, after losing every game down to the Ohio State contest, the Illini again ruined Ohio's hopes of another championship. Again the score was 7 to 0.

Just a year ago, the situation was once more reversed. Ohio State, defeated in every Big Ten game, invaded Illinois and emerged the victor in a gruelling battle, 6 to 3.

This fall sees one of the finest Illinois teams in history, unbeaten in the Western Conference. It is called upon to meet an Ohio State eleven that floundered about somewhat in October but which seems to have found itself. Illinois has its Grange, Ohio State its Workman. Another great afternoon is assured. All the essentials for another thriller are present. May the best team win and may that fine rivalry between Illinois and Ohio State continue to grow with the years.

THESE are typical—just three of the 196 separate songs in this 220-page volume, distinctively printed, with cover design in gold, with full-page illustrations of University scenes and buildings and with a full-page photograph (not a cut) of Dr. W. O. Thompson and his autograph in facsimile.

The edition is limited to 3,000 copies, of which more than 1,000 already have been reserved on order.
The 1916 volume, which this one replaces, was sold out almost on sight.

Here's a birdseye of the table of contents:

ball and otherwise. | 6. Shakespearean songs (a very rare collection,

The Days of Real Sport

OLD timers, returning for today's game, will find many things new and strange--new buildings on the campus, new faces on the team, new cheers, new uniforms.

But at least three things will recall old times.

They will see a good game, hard fought and clean. They will see a spirit of friendly rivalry unmatched anywhere, East or West. And they will see the State Journal -- the old reliable Ohio State Journal--still giving the first news, the full news and best news.

ILLINOIS LOYALTY

We're loyal to you, Illinois.
We're Orange and Blue, Illinois.
We'll back you to stand
'Gainst the best in the land,
For we know you have sand,
Illinois, Rah! Rah!
So smash that blockade, Illinois,
Go crashing ahead, Illinois;
Our team is our fame protector,
On, boys, for we expect a touchdown
from you, Illinois.
Che-he! Che-ha! Che-ha-ha-ha!
Che-he! Che-ha! Che-ha-ha-ha!
Fling out that dear old flag of Orange

Like men of old, on giants placing reliance, shouting defiance,
Oskey-wow-wow!
Amid the broad, green plains that nourish our land,
For honest Labor and for Learning we stand,
And unto thee we pledge our heart
and hand,
Dear Alma Mater, Illinois. . .

ACROSS THE FIELD

Words and Music by
W. A. Dougherty, Jr., '17

Fight that team across the field,
Show them Ohio's here,
Set the earth reverberating with a mighty cheer.
Hit them hard and see how they fall;
Never let that team get the ball,
Hail! Hail! the gang's all here,
So let's beat that Wesleyan now.
Oh, Ohio! Oh, Ohio! Wa-hoo! Wa-hoo!
for Ohio!

CARMEN OHIO

Words and Music by
Fred Cornell, ex-'06

(Hats off, standing)

O, come, let's sing Ohio's praise
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill
With joy that death alone can still.
Summer's heat or winter's cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will truly show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.

These jolly days of priceless worth
By far the gladdest days on earth,
Soon will pass and we not know
How dearly we love Ohio.
We should strive to keep thy name
Of fair repute and spotless fame;
So in college halls we'll grow
And love thee better—Ohio.

Alumni Chorus

Tho, age may dim our mem'ry's store,
We'll think of happy days of yore,
True to friend and frank to foe,
As sturdy sons of O-hi-o.

If on seas of care we roll,
'Neath blackened sky, o'er barren
shoal,
Thots of thee bid darkness go,
Dear Alma Mater—O-hi-o.

(All in on last Ohio.)

THE BUCKEYE BATTLE CRY

Words and Music by Frank Crumit

In old Ohio there's a team,
That's known thruout the land;
Eleven warriors, brave and bold,
Whose fame will ever stand,
And when the ball goes over,
Our cheers will reach the sky,
Ohio Field will hear again
The Buckeye Battle Cry.

Drive! Drive on down the field,
Men of the scarlet and gray;
Don't let them thru that line,
We have to win this game today,
Come on, Ohio! Smash thru to victory,
We cheer you as we go;
Our honor defend
So we'll fight to the end
For Ohio.

Intramural Athletics

Probably nowhere else in the country have intramural athletics been developed to the extent that they have at Ohio State. Under the direction of Grant P. Ward, assistant football coach, Ohio State has taken the lead in intramurals.

Conducted with the idea of "competitive athletics for every student," the intramural program fills a real place in the university's program of physical education. In the figures given below no man was permitted to play on more than one team in any given sport. If, however, he took part in more than one sport, i. e., baseball and basketball, he is counted in both.

Participation figures for the school year 1922-23 follow:

SPORT	Teams Entered	Number of Contests	Number of Participants
Soccer	31	61	475
Cross Country	1	1	103
Indoor Baseball	66	76	849
Football (interclass)	4	4	126
Basketball	203	524	1863
Bowling	77	217	599

LOOK FOR THIS WATERMARK

Hold one of your ring book sheets up to the light and see if you can read the words "INTER STATE." If not you are not using this most excellent paper for ring book use.

INTER STATE BOND is generally used by Ohio State students. They like it because of its fine writing surface and strength. It is low in price, too.

Ask your stationer for "INTER STATE BOND." He can furnish it.

High Lights on "Big Ten" History

The Western Intercollegiate Conference, now popularly known as the "Big Ten," was organized on January 11, 1895, by presidents of seven middle western universities, meeting in Chicago to consider the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

Members of the Conference at its inception were: Chicago, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Northwestern, Purdue and Wisconsin.

Indiana and the State University of Iowa were admitted on December 1, 1899.

Ohio State University is the junior member of the "Big Ten," having been admitted to membership on April 6, 1912.

Michigan withdrew from the Conference on January 14, 1908, accepted an invitation to return on June 9, 1917, and resumed membership on November 20, 1917.

Precedent and resolutions rather than a written constitution are the agenda of control in the Western Intercollegiate Conference. Each member institution has a faculty representative entitled to one vote. No person who receives pay for services connected with athletics or the Department of Physical Education is eligible to sit as a Conference representative.

Annual meetings are held in Chicago in December. Called meetings are held as necessity arises. A majority vote of representatives passes any measure, but all legislation must go to the faculties of the member institutions for approval. Any measure rejected within 60 days by one or more faculties must be reconsidered at the next meeting of the Conference. The measure becomes operative, however, if again passed by a majority vote and any institution rejecting it a second time is subject to suspension from the Conference.

George M. Trautman

Not so many years ago "Red" Trautman was a general utility man on the Ohio State team. Under Dr. Wilce, Trautman found his real place at center.

Since his graduation he has become Athletic Director St. John's right hand man. Whenever they want anything done at the Athletic House, they "let George do it."
